Coconut Battery

Current charge

The current battery charge (in mAh - miliampere-hour)

Full Charge Capacity

The maximum capacity your battery can be charged with (in mAh - miliampere-hour)

Design capacity

The capacity your battery could be charged with when it left the factory (in mAh - miliampere-hour)

Model

The Apple model identification string for your Mac or battery

Manufacture date

Calculates the age of your Mac or Battery using the coded production date in the serial number of your Mac or Battery (Note: for Macs only the manufacture week can be calculated, in this case the date represents the first day of the production week)

Cycle Count

How often was your battery loaded from 0% to 100%? Keep it low to increase your battery life. (Apple battery information page)

Battery temperature

Etrecheck

The image shows a screenshot of the EtreCheck website. At the top left is the Etresoft, Inc. logo in yellow. At the top right is the EtreCheck logo in green with a red checkmark icon. The main content area has a light yellow background and features three sections: 'EtreCheck will help you:', 'Safety:', and 'Reliability:'. Each section contains a bulleted list of features and benefits. In the background, there is a faint image of a laptop screen displaying the EtreCheck interface, including a magnifying glass icon and the text 'Checking software'.

Evernote

The screenshot displays the Evernote web interface. On the left is a dark sidebar with navigation options like 'Shortcuts', 'Currently Working On', and 'Notes (21)'. The main content area shows a recipe titled 'Scrambled Tofu Breakfast Bahn Mi'. The recipe includes a list of ingredients for the tofu and the bahn mi, a small thumbnail image of the dish, and a larger main image of the finished bahn mi sandwich on a white plate. The ingredients for the bahn mi are: 2 tablespoons vegetable oil, 1.0 pound cremini mushrooms, cleaned and thinly sliced, 3/4 cup thinly sliced shiitake, and 4 scallions, white and green parts divided and sliced very thin.

Evernote is probably the most popular, widely used and best-supported note-taking solution in the world. Recent changes mean that the free version is limited to just two devices, but it's still a note-taking powerhouse.

LibreOffice

Looking for an office suite but can't justify the $150 Microsoft is asking for their budget version? LibreOffice might just do the job. The open source word processor, spreadsheet tool, and presentation app lacks polish but it's completely free and much less temperamental than most browser-based alternatives.

If 1Password's steep price has put you off, LastPass is technically free to begin with. You can use it for free on any one device (including your Mac) but when it comes to syncing and accessing your passwords elsewhere, you'll have to go premium for $1 per month.

MalwareBytes Mac

Your Mac can get malware, but it's not a particularly common occurrence. There aren't too many security apps your Mac needs, but MalwareBytes is a nice free safeguard to have around.

Onyx

Onyx Gives Access To All Kinds Of Hidden Mac Options, Keeping your Mac running in tip-top shape is important. If you use your computer for work, you are going to want it running as fast as possible.

The Unarchiver

Unlike Windows users, Mac users don't have the option of using 7zip. Luckily, The Unarchiver can open just about any compressed archive including .ZIP, .7Z and .RAR.

VirtualBox

Run Windows on your Mac for free with VirtualBox, though you'll still need a valid Windows license to get anywhere.

Amphetamine

Stop your Mac from going to sleep with Amphetamine, a small free utility that lives in the menu bar. This is a great replacement for Caffeine, which no longer works on modern versions of macOS.

Handbrake

Convert videos with a click using Handbrake, the go-to free video transcoder for Mac, Windows and Linux.

Calibre

YouTube to MP3

The image shows the website for MediaHuman's YouTube to MP3 Converter. The website header includes the MediaHuman logo and navigation links: Home, Products, Download, Guides, and Contact us. The main heading is "YouTube to MP3 Converter". Below this, it states "Version: 3.9.8.16 Updated on September 14, 2017 [changes] Price: Free". A paragraph describes the software's purpose: "You like to listen to music on YouTube or SoundCloud and want to save it for offline playing. Or you want to download soundtrack of a new movie. Then we recommend you to try out this software developed specifically for this purpose." A list of features follows, each with a checkmark icon:

- ✓ Downloads all music from playlist or channel
- ✓ Downloads highest available quality up to 320 kbps
- ✓ Supports YouTube, Vimeo, SoundCloud, Dailymotion, VEVO, etc.
- ✓ Downloads simultaneously
- ✓ Includes simple tag editor with cover art support
- ✓ Works on all modern platforms (macOS, Windows, Ubuntu)
- ✓ Imports into iTunes

To the right of the text is a screenshot of the software's user interface. The window title is "MediaHuman YouTube to MP3". It features a "Paste url" field and a "Start all" button. Below these are four columns: "Ready (4)", "Processing (0)", "Failed (0)", and "Complete (0)". The "Ready" column contains a list of music items with their titles, artists, and album names:

| Title                                   | Artist              | Album |
|---|---------------------|-------|
| Love Me Like You Do                     | Ellie Goulding      | empty |
| "Panda" (Prod. By: Menace)              | Designer            | empty |
| "Bad Motherfker" Official Music Video | Bling Elbows        | empty |
| Red Lips (Dorflex Remix)                | GTA feat. Sam Bruno | empty |
